Rome, Feb. 21. N. S.

THE Congregation of Cardinals appointed to examine the Arch-Bishop of Cambray's Book, have at last resolved to condemn the Opinions contained therein; But some Things having been represented to the Pope in the Arch-Bishop's behalf, by a Person whom he has sent hither to act as his Agent in this Affair, Orders are given, That the Pronouncing of the Sentence, and the Publishing of the Bull in pursuance thereof, be delayed, till such time as this Matter is further enquired into. Several Persons are appointed to inspect the new Works that are making at the Port of Anzo, and to take care that they be finished with all possible diligence. The Cardinals, Carpegna, Casanata, Marescotti, and Norris, are frequently in Conference together, having Orders from the Pope to consider of several Matters relating to the Presentation of Bishopricks, and other Ecclesiastical Benefices in Poland. We have received an Account, that the Queen-Dowager of Poland arrived the 9th Instant at Ferrara, where she was splendidly entertained by Cardinal Astally, and that she intended the next day to continue her Journey to Bologna, where she will pass the Carnaval.

Turin, Feb. 21. A new Reinforcement of Regulated Troops, and a Body of the Militia, are ordered to march against the Rebels of Mondovi, who have intrenched themselves at a place called Vico, and from thence make Excursions into the Neighbouring Country. The Duke of Savoy has promised a Pardon to such of them as shall surrender themselves before the 25th Instant. The Duke de Sesto, who was sent hither by the Prince of Vaudemont Governor of Milan, to confer with the Duke of Savoy concerning the Pretensions his Royal Highness makes to some Lands about Final, is returned to Milan.

Venice, Feb. 27. Count Nigrelli, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Modena, had Audience of the College last Monday, and in the Name of the Duke his Master, returned Thanks to them for the Honour and Respect they paid to the Queen of the Romans in her passage through their Dominions. The Senate are to meet this week, to make choice of an Ambassador to be sent to the Grand Signior, and it's thought, Signior Zen, who has served the Republick in the same Quality at Vienna, will be appointed for that Employment. Our Doge is dangerously ill. Signior Antonio Grimani died yesterday, and it's believed, will be succeeded as Procurator of St. Mark by Signior Venier, who was lately Ambassador from this Republick to His Majesty of Great-Britain. Cardinal Cavallerini is lately dead, which makes a Sixth Vacancy in the College of Cardinals.

Warsaw, Feb. 28. Te Deum was sung here on the 24th Instant for the Conclusion of the Peace with the Turks. The Committee of the Senate, to whom the Affair of Elbing is referred, are to meet this week, to consider of the Instructions to be given to the King's Ministers appointed for this Treaty. The Sieur Gomolinsky, who is to reside on the part of this Crown at the Imperial Court, will be going thither in a few days. The Starost of Chelm makes Preparations for his Journey to the Port, as Ambassador from this Crown. We hear from Lemberg, that the Tartars of Camieniec have lately made an Incursion into Podolia, and carried off a considerable Booty.

Vienna, March 4. The Publick Diversions on the occasion of the Marriage of the King of the Romans, have been continued here several days. On Saturday last, in the evening, the Court were Entertained with very fine Musick, both Vocal and Instrumental, performed by Persons representing Hymen, Venus, Apollo, the Muses, and other Heathen Gods and Goddesses, seated in several rich Triumphal Chariots which were brought into the Great Court of the Palace, and so placed, that their Imperial Majesties, accompanied with the King and Queen of the Romans, the Arch-Duke and Arch-Dutchesses, heard the same from the Windows of their Apartment. On Sunday there was a Firework; On Monday the Arch-Dutchesses, and divers Ladies of Quality, acted a Comedy; after which, there was a Ball; And last night these Diversions were concluded with a Masquerade, and a Ball. An Express is arrived here from Hungary, which brings Advice, that the Venetian Ambassador having received the Senate's Orders for signing the Treaty for a Truce of 25 Years with the Turks, on the Conditions stipulated for that Republick by his Imperial Majesty, had immediately sent Notice thereof to the Mediators and Turkish Ministers at Belgrade, desiring they might have a Meeting to put the finishing hand to this Great Work; and that accordingly they met, and had a Conference, in which the Treaty between the Republick and the Port was signed by both Parties, and fair Transcripts thereof were immediately dispatched to Venice and Andrinople to be Ratified. Signior Loredano, Ambassador from the Republick of Venice at this Court, had his first Audience of the Emperor some days ago. Count Philip of Dietrichstein is made Master of the Horse in the room of Count Harrach, whom the Emperor has made High-Steward. Prince Leopold of Dietrichstein, Son to the late Prince of Dietrichstein who was High-Steward to the Emperor, has lately received from Spain the Order of the Golden Fleece. Count Kinsky, Great-Chancellor of the Kingdom of Bohemia, and one of the Emperor's Chief Ministers of State, died here the 27th of the last Month; It's believed, the Count of Webna will succeed him in the Office of Chancellor of Bohemia.

Berlin, Feb. 25. The Heer Heims, Resident from the Emperor, had Audience on the 12th Instant of the Elector of Brandenburgh, and notified the Marriage of the King of the Romans, upon which occasion there was a very solemn Festival at this Court on the 14th, and the next day the Resident gave a splendid Entertainment to all the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Quality here. On the 13th, Brigadier Goer of Hanouer went from hence on his Journey to Warsaw, being sent with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the House of Lunenburgh to the King of Poland. The Elector has given the Command of the Garrison in the City of Elbing to Brigadier Horne, who is accordingly gone thither, and has Directions to repair and augment the Fortifications of Elbing.

Francfort, March 11. Two Companies of the Forces of Hesse Darmstad, and two of the Landgrave of
